Scoil Gheimhridh Frankie Kennedy

Frankie Kennedy Winter School

Gaoth Dobhair, Co Donegal

2005 - 2006

28 December - 2 January

An Scoil - The School

Cuireadh Scoil Gheimhridh Frankie Kennedy ar bun i mí na Nollag 1994 i ndiaidh a bháis ó áilse i Meán Fómhair na bliana céanna. 'Sé aidhm na Scoile leanstan ar aghaidh leis an fhuinneamh agus an spiorad a chuir Frankie sa cheol traidisiúnta agus forbairt a dhéanamh air, go mór mór ceol agus amhránaíocht Dhún na nGall.

The Frankie Kennedy Winter School was established in December 1994 following Frankie's untimely death from cancer in September of that year. The school's vision is to continue his huge contribution to Irish traditional music, especially the music and song of Donegal.

Tá muid ag brath go trom ar chabhair agus cuidiú ónár gcairde uilig, go háirithe na daoine áitiúla a chuidíonn go mór linn le buanú agus le heagrú na Scoile i rith na bliana - gan sibh, ní bheadh an Scoil ann - go raibh míle maith agaibh uilig. The School's success depends on a lot of local voluntary support behind the scene and we are grateful to all of our helpers and supporters.

Ní thiocfadh linn Scoil Gheimhridh Frankie Kennedy a reachtáil gan an chabhair agus an tacaíocht a thugann ár n-urraithe dúinn. The Frankie Kennedy Winter School wishes to thank the following sponsors and funding bodies who help make the school happen.

Frankie

Bhí Frankie Kennedy, a rugadh i mBéal Feirste 1955, aitheanta mar dhuine de fhliútadóirí móra na hÉireann sa cheol traidisiúnta de bharr a chuid oibre leis an bhanna ceoil 'Altan' a bhunaigh sé féin agus Mairéad ní Mhaonaigh, agus a raibh sé mar bhainisteoir air. Leag Frankie agus Mairéad an dúshraith don bhanna lena gcéad cheirnín 'Ceol Aduaidh' a h-eisíodh ar lipéad Gael Linn.

Múinteoir céimiúil ab é Frankie agus comhráití breá. Ba bhall é de dhream óg de fhliútadóirí díograsacha as an Tuaisceart a tháinig chun tosaigh sna seachtóidí agus na h-ochtóidí. Cosúil lena chairde, fuair Frankie spreagadh agus insporáid dona chuid ceoil ó sheancheoltóirí agus amhránaithe Chúige Uladh.

Frankie Kennedy, born in Belfast in 1955, became one of Ireland's best known traditional flute players through his work with the band Altan which he managed and founded with his partner Mairéad Ní Mhaonaigh. Frankie and Mairéad set the seeds for Altan with their ground breaking album Ceol Aduaidh on the Gael Linn label.

Frankie, a naturally gifted teacher and communicator, was part of a robust wave of young Northern flute players who came to the fore in the '70s & '80s. Like his contemporaries, Frankie drew inspiration from the older generation of Ulster musicians and singers.

"Frankie Kennedy was an exceptional flute player, one of the masters of the instrument... not simply due to his in-depth understanding of the instrument, his excellent phrasing and tone or his fluency in complex Donegal fiddle tunes but primarily because his own style was so personal to him, so distinctive ..." Harry Bradley

"an excellent flute player with his own unique style. His treatment of slow airs and difficult Donegal fiddle tunes was highly impressive." Paul McGrattan

"On first meeting Frankie I felt that I had met a kindred spirit" Matt Molloy

CIARÁN TOURISH

SEÁN ÓG POTTS

The countdown to 2006 starts with the young Northern band Beoga. They will share the New Year's Eve stage for the annual 'ceol, céilí agus craic' in the Ostán with the electrifying Seamus Begley and Jim Murray. As in previous years, this promises to be a memorable night!

ALTAN

Of course there's no Frankie Kennedy Winter School without Altan who will be joined by special guests for the final 2 concerts at Dunlewey, the band's 'Local Ground'. These are always very special gigs for Altan who have started every year since 1990 by playing to enthusiastic audiences in this intimate setting.

The popular afternoon recitals in the spectacular setting of Ostán Ghaoth Dobhair include pipers Gay, Conor & Seán McKeon with Arty McGlynn. The McKeons recently released a critically acclaimed new album 'The Dusty Miller'. As we were going to press we just got news that Seán has been awarded TG4's Young Musician of the year 2005.

GAY, CONOR & SEÁN McKEON

This year's traditional singing event will focus on the Gaelic song traditions of Ireland and Scotland and Seamus Begley (Kerry) will present a line up that includes Róisín Alsafty (Conamara), Connie Mhary Mhicí, Gearóidín Breathnach (Donegal), Màiri Anna Nic Ualraig (Scotland).

Martin McGinley presents the fiddle concert this year and to top it all off Harry Bradley presents the flute 'blowout' which puts the flute at centre stage to celebrate and honour Frankie Kennedy - always a session to remember!

Early booking is strongly recommended as all events sell out quickly. Unauthorised audio and/or visual recording or broadcast or transmission of any of these events is strictly prohibited.
